

YOUTH ART MONTH™

United through Art

The month of March is Youth Art Month across the nation. Please join us at AMoA to celebrate the creative talents of the youth in our community.

First, enter your students' artwork into the

2017 Youth Art Month

Juried Student Art Competition

YAM Exhibition at AMoA: Saturday, March 4 – April 22, 2017

- 2017 Theme: United through Art
- Teachers enter FREE online on behalf of their students.
- Open to all K-12 Rapides Parish students, including students with disabilities and homeschool students.
- Students with accepted entries and their families are invited to attend the VIP Opening Reception on Friday, March 3, 2017 at 6:00pm.
- Prizes, Judge's Awards and Viewer's Choice Award will be presented at 1:00 during the Youth Art Month Festival.
- GO TO: www.callforentry.org and create a teacher account to enter.
- For downloads, guidelines and more information, please visit <http://themuseum.org/teachers/youth-art-month>.

and then join us for the Youth Art Month Festival

on Saturday, March 11, 2017 at AMoA, 10:00am - 2:00pm

- A day filled with art, music, learning, fun and friends!
- FREE Hands-on art activities for all ages and demonstrations by artists, art teachers and high school art students!
- Art vendors and food vendors!
- Balloons, quarter art games and more!

Thank you, in advance, for your efforts in educating and encouraging children of our community for creativity in the visual arts and we hope you will join us for this day of amazing art fun!